Based on Knocked Out, a short story in the book Outer Face. This can be used to show the progression of a plot line, or as a base for a play or poem.

Dad kicks the football towards Cameron.
Cameron turns to watch Alison, the girl next door, walk past.
The ball hits Cameron on the head.
Cameron is at the doctor's surgery.
The doctor gives Cameron instructions.
Cameron reads the doctor's mind.
The doctor is startled.
Dad drives Cameron home.
Cameron reads Glenn's mind and says he can't copy his homework.
Glenn runs away from Cameron.
Alison smiles at Cameron.
She thinks he looks stupid when the ball hit him on the head.
Cameron finds Glenn.
Cameron asks Glenn to hit him on the head, to stop the mind reading.
Glenn refuses.
Cameron teases Gonzo Greg about his shoelaces.
Gonzo Greg hits Cameron.
Cameron can still read minds.
After school, Cameron attends rugby practice.
He bashes into every player he can.
They won't bash back.
Cameron can still read minds.
He limps home.
Dad tells Mum that Cameron tried to get knocked out at school.
Mum says she knows because she can read minds.
